

CONTENTS

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS	VII
INTRODUCTION
Black Twin, White Twin	3
Mapatya	15
MICHAEL AND MANDAZA'S STORY
1. I Just Thought It Was the Way Things Were	23
2. Of Such Small Things the Kingdom of Heaven Is Made	27
3. Curled Up Like a Chicken Foot	31
4. The Stranger God Gave Me to Love	33
5. The Lion Totem	37
6. The Language of the Birds	39
7. Words to Talk about God	41
8. The Beggar at the Crossroads	49
9. War	55
10. The Black Liberation Army	59
11. Becoming a Policeman	63
12. Becoming a Nurse	67
13. I Started Having Powerful Dreams	69
14. The Sweetest of Gifts	73
15. Water Spirit Disease	77
16. The Picture of Beauty	81
17. The Coming of the Spirits	85
18. While the City Burned	93
19. Independence	95
20. Receive the Dead Meat from my Heart	101
21. And Then the Rain Fell	107

22. So the Spirits Can Have a Home	111
23. The White Eagle	117
24. Slowly and with Great Tenderness	121
25. Simakuhle and George	125
26. Into Yet Another Heart	129
27. I Know It in My Body	137
28. Not Deliberately Eating Souls	141
29. They Are Rainmakers	149
30. Circles within Circles	153
31. Not Really an Evil Spirit	157
32. All His Distressing Disguises	159
33. The Spirits Come in So Many Ways	163
34. Grandmother Spider	165
35. The Snake Who Put Medicine in My Body	171
36. The Black Eagle	173
37. The Peacemaker Who Has No Name	177
38. A Fool for Sure	179
39. I Am Here	181

CONCLUSION

Thou Shalt Not Make Enemies	185
The Holy Spirit Itself Was Drinking	189

EPILOGUE

Descending the Holy Mountain	195
And the Stars Are Her Children	200

AFTERWORD by Deena Metzger

Daré , a Healing Community	205
-----------------------------------	-----